

Character Profiles: Finders Keepers

All characters are from our Comfy Summer Jam 2026 project, Finders Keepers. You can play the game yourself here: <https://shinyndas.itch.io/finders-keepers>

Benjamin Sloan

Summary: A shrewd businessman with a silver tongue. Will do everything he can to sweeten the deal, lie, twist, and manipulate to get his way. Puts on a sweet face for the player character, and supports their efforts wholeheartedly. Wants to capitalize on the end of the world. Is working for a mysterious benefactor who wants a particularly rare item. Designed to be the driving force behind the game's limitation: "the instructions are a lie".

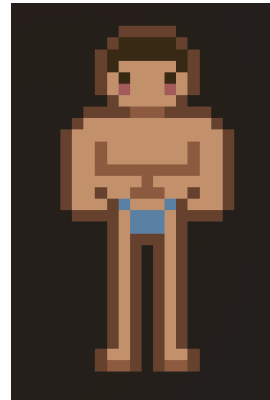

Artist Brief: A grey-haired caucasian 50/m; pudgy with a smidge of muscle from his weightlifting days; never caught dead wearing anything but black turtlenecks and gold chains.

Rico

Summary: A boisterous man with negligence for others. Doesn't care about anything but his dog, Gigi. Seems to lack social intelligence, but doesn't come across as entirely unfriendly. Will constantly be talking about either himself, or his pet. Has a soft heart underneath his oiled body. When nobody is looking, he cries on video calls with Gigi and his live-in butler.

Artist Brief: Muscled swimsuit model here for a photoshoot, roughly 30/m. Full of himself. Will often want to talk about his own accomplishments to boost his ego. Doesn't often wear much, but cares about his appearance.

Splurch

Summary: Is a thing that very clearly is not of this world, but isn't directly responsible for the apocalypse. Will speak in riddles and talk very simply of frightening or disgusting things. Despite their difficulty connecting with humans on a personal level, Splurch shows compassion and empathy. Designed to be a foil for Benjamin, and the other potential recipient of a particularly rare item.

Artist Brief: A mysterious stranger. Lives in shadow; unknown age/unknown gender. A slimy specimen who delights in the esoteric and chaotic. Appears as a dark figure in an alley. Has a signature crooked smile.
